From Saturday Auguſt 19. to Tueſday Auguſt 22. 1738.

Kenſington, Auguſt 21.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, embrace the earlieſt Opportunity of the firſt General Quarter Seſſions held for your County of Dublin, to expreſs our Joy on the late happy Increaſe of your Majeſty's Royal Family.

A Prince of ſuch illuſtrious Birth, has only to copy the Virtues of your Majeſty and of his Royal Anceſtors, to make him dear to a free People, and a Bleſſing to Mankind.

Your Majeſty's firm Attachment to the Proteſtant Religion, your conſtant love of Liberty, and your ſacred Regard for Property, make your Subjects ſecure in the Enjoyment of all their Rights, and ardently to wiſh for the long Continuance of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign. And we have the pleaſing Hope, that the ſame Happineſs willbe tranſmitted to our Poſterity, by a Succeſſion of Princes inheriting the ſame glorious Principles by Deſcent from your Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and the reſt of the Gentlemen of the County of Limerick.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do with the greateſt Pleaſure congratulate your Majeſty on the Increaſe of your Royal and moſt illuſtrious Houſe, by the happy Birth of a Prince.

May your Majeſty's conſtant Care in preſerving the Religious and Civil Rights of your Subjects, and every Act of your moſt gracious and mild Adminiſtration, be a Model to our young Prince to form himſelf by.

This conſtantly kept in View, will, when it ſhall pleaſe the Divine Power to call him to the Throne of his Royal Anceſtors, make him the Darling of a free People, as your Majeſty juſtly is at preſent.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Southwell, Mayor of the City of Limerick, and of the Sheriffs and Citizens of the ſaid City, at a General Aſſizes held for the ſaid City the 12th Day of July, 1738.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs and Citizens, of your ancient City of Limerick, beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Birth of the young Prince has fill'd our Hearts with unfeigned Joy.

We are truly ſenſible it is our Intereſt as well as Duty, earneſtly to deſire a conſtant Succeſſion of Princes to rule over us deſcended from your Majeſty and your Royal and moſt illuſtrious Houſe.

Under your Majeſty, and from ſuch a Succeſſion only, the Proteſtant Religion can flouriſh, and the true Intereſts of your Majeſty's People be preſerved and ſupported.

We ſhould be highly ungrateful to the beſt of Kings, if we miſſed any Opportunity of acknowledging, with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy in the Protection of our Religious and Civil Rights under your Majeſty's moſt good and gracious Adminiſtration.

And we beſeech your Majeſty to accept of the ſincere Wiſhes and Deſires of your faithful Citizens, that your Majeſty's Reign may be

be long and prosperous; and that our Posterity may never want a Race of Kings descended lineally from your Majesty, and equally good and merciful as you are, to govern them.

Vienna, Aug. 16, N. S. Letters from the Imperial Army of the 10th Instant tell us, they were on the March, and would arrive as last Night at Cubin upon the Danube, over against Semendria. A Detachment was sent from the Army to reinforce the Garrison of Orsova, and there are Advices (of which we wait the Confirmation) that the said Detachment have thrown themselves into that Place.

Whitehall, August 11, 1738.

Whereas divers evil-disposed Persons have, for some time past, made a Practice of filing Guineas, and putting them off at the Bank, and other Places: His Majesty, for the apprehending the Persons concerned in filing Guineas as aforesaid, is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, upon Conviction of each of the Persons concerned in the abovesaid Practice. And whereas John Carter, and Francis Kelham, against whom Informations have been taken upon Oath, have, since the Discovery of these Facts, left their Habitations, and absconded: His Majesty is pleased to promise the like Reward for the apprehending of each of them, upon their or either of them being convicted. And, as a further Encouragement, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts.

HARRINGTON.

John Carter is a tall thin Man, of a pale Complexion, and is Lame of one Foot which turns inwards; he is a Watch-Graver by Trade, formerly kept an Alehouse in West-Smithfield, but lodged last at the Duke's Head in St. John's Square.

Francis Kelham, a little Man with a red Complexion, who kept the Rose and Crown Ale-house in Bartholomew Close, till he absconded. They have both been frequently seen at Horse Races, Gaming-Tables, Hazard, and Cockfighting Matches. Whoever apprehends either of the said Persons, or any other Person concerned in these Practices, may apply themselves to Mr. Ashton, in Surry-street in the Strand, or to Mr. North, near Fishmongers-Hall, in Thames street.

Admiralty Office, August 8, 1738.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places abovementioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute some Relief to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, and whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, these are to give Notice of the same to all such Widows, that they may procure the proper Certificates and Affidavits, and send or bring them hither. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at this Office on Tuesday the 19th of September next, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

Navy Office, August 18, 1738.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers from the 31st of December, 1737, to the 30th of June 1738, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad-street, at Nine a-Clock in the Morning, the following Days, to wit, on Monday the 4th of next Month for the Captains, Tuesday the 5th for the Lieutenants, and Wednesday the 6th for the Masters and Surgeons, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavits required, touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

THE under-mentioned Perſons claiming the Benefit of the Act lately paſſed for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, the following Notices have been brought to the Printer of the London Gazette, to be inſerted in this Paper, and are herein inſerted in Obedience to the ſaid Act.

Whereas purſuant to an Act paſſed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty King George the Second, entitled, An Act for Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, I Richard Bulſtrode, Eſquire, have by Notice in Writing dated the 19th day of this Inſtant Auguſt, required the Marſhal of the King's Bench, Keeper of the King's Bench Priſon, in the county of Surry, to bring Edward Gilbourne, late of Clifford's Inn, London, Gentleman, now a Priſoner in the ſaid Priſon, (who was there detained at my Suit on the firſt day of January 1736) before the Juſtices of the Peace, at their next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County of Surry, which ſhall be held for the ſaid County thirty days next after the Date of the ſaid Notice, together with a Copy or Copies of the Cauſe or Cauſes of his Detainer, that the ſaid Edward Gilbourne may be obliged to deliver in upon Oath and ſubſcribe a Schedule of his Eſtate and Effects, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Act directs. This is therefore to give Notice to the other Creditors of the ſaid Edward Gilbourne, that they may be apprized thereof, and come in for their diſtributive Share, according to the Tenor of the ſaid Act of Parliament.

The following Perſons being Fugitives for Debt, and beyond the Seas on the firſt Day of January 1736, and having ſurrendred themſelves to the Marſhal of the King's Bench Priſon in Southwark, in the county of Surry, give Notice, that they intend to take the Benefit of the late Act of Parliament for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County of Surry, or at the Adjournment thereof, which ſhall firſt happen next after 30 days from the Publication hereof, viz. John Neill, late of Vere-ſtreet near Clare-market, in the Pariſh of St. Clement Danes, in the County of Middleſex, Victualler. Mills Fluce, late of Cricklade in Wiltſhire, Joyner and Carpenter. John Atchiſon, late of St. Bartholomew the Great, Innkeeper and Chapman. Robert Boſſwell, late of Thorny Abbey, in the Iſle of Ely, in the County of Cambridge, Millwright and Farmer.

The undermentioned Perſon being a Priſoner in the County Goal of Hereford, hereby gives Notice, that he intends to take the Benefit of the late Act of Parliament made for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the County of Hereford, or the Adjournment thereof next after thirty days from the Publication hereof, viz. George Maxwell, late of the City of Hereford, Chapman.

The following Perſon being a Priſoner for Debt in the common Goal for the County of Southampton, at Wincheſter, in the ſaid County, hereby gives Notice, that he intends to take the Benefit of the late Act of Parliament made for Relief of inſolvent Debtors, at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the ſaid County of Southampton, or at the Adjournment thereof, that ſhall firſt happen next after the Expiration of 30 Days from the Publication hereof, viz. Thomas Adams, late of Goſport in the County of Southampton, Dealer.

The following Perſon being a Fugitive for Debt, and beyond the Seas on the firſt Day of January 1736, and having ſurrendred himſelf into Cuſtody of the Keeper of the Sheriff's Priſon at St. Dunſtan's near Canterbury in the County of Kent, gives Notice, that he intends to take the Benefit of the late Act of Parliament made for Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the ſaid County or at the Adjournment thereof, which ſhall happen next after thirty Days from the Publication hereof, viz. Robert Atkinſon, late of Greenwich in the county of Kent, Mariner.

The following Perſons being Priſoners for Debt in the Sheriffs Ward or Priſon at Southgate, within the City and County of the City of Exon, hereby give Notice, that they intend to take the Benefit of the late Act of Parliament for Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held at the Guildhall of the ſaid City of Exon, or at the Adjournment thereof, next after thirty Days from the Publication hereof, viz. Daniel Squires, late of the City of Exon, Carpenter. William Beſt, late of the ſaid City of Exon, Baker.

N. B. If any Perſon in the foregoing Liſt of Priſoners ſhall find on the Peruſal of this Gazette that there is any Error, ſuch Error ſhall, upon Notice, be rectified in the next Gazette Gratis.
